

I put my number on the no-call list because I want to control who has access to MY number. If I cancel service with a business, there was a reason and if they think telemarketing me for 18 months is going to get me back as a customer they are wrong. I don't and won't buy anything from a telemarketing call. If I'm interested I'll call them!